HUGHES FOUND GUILTY

Of Allowing Card Playing In His Saloon.

HE GOT A VERY LIGHT FINE

In Consideration of the Costs In the Case, Which Run Up To No Small Amount. Another Chance To Get a Ruling From Lisbon—A Hot Fight.

When Harry Hughes heard the verdict in the case which the city brought against him for violating the ordinance by allowing card playing in his saloon, he was disappointed. It had taken the jury more than three hours to decide, but they finally came to the conclusion that Hughes was guilty as charged.

When the NEWS REVIEW went to press yesterday afternoon J. S. Weaver was on the stand. He testified that he played euchre in Hughes' saloon on July 12, the night the trio were arrested, but he was not caught. He had left in the middle of a game to fill an appointment with Nick Eck, a saloon keeper in the old opera house building. He admitted having seen Earle on East Market street, but it was after the raid, and all he said to him was that Hughes had blamed him (Weaver) with informing on him. He wanted Earle to prove to Hughes that he had not. Weaver also said that he had been served with beer in the room directly back of the bar and others had bought and paid for it there.

A. K. Adams—I have drank beer in the room in question but always paid for it and carried it in. Never saw it sold in that room.

Officer William Jennings—A door leads directly from barroom to this room. I have seen Hughes take beer into this room while parties were there. I didn't see them drink it. They left too suddenly. I was in there on May 6 and once since then. Squire Manley ruled for the first time for the defense when he decided that Jennings could not tell how it was furnished there, because the character of the room might have been different since July 12.

Officer Earle, who made the raid took the stand—I went to the saloon on the night of July 12 and rapped on the door of the back room. It was opened and I saw George Dale, Thomas Garen, James McHenry and somebody I did not know, playing cards. Guess it was euchre. Did not see Hughes. The room was furnished with chairs, carpet and two round tables. McHenry was dealing to the others. He gave me the cards he had in his hand when I asked for them. I got the cards and there were 24 of them.

Mr. Brookes—Can you play euchre, Mr. Earle?

Earle—I certainly can.
Mr. Brookes—How did you go in?
Earle—By the hall door. It connects with the saloon. I had reason to believe there was something going on there that needed my attention.

Mr. Brookes tried to find out where Earle got his information, but it caused only a smile and the attorney would not press the question. Then Mr. Brookes rung in an affidavit made by Earle charging the men with gambling and asked him what he meant by it. Earle said he had made the charge but it was ruled out. Then Mr. Clark wanted to know if when the saloon was raided on May 6 he saw liquor sold there. That was where the city got it in the neck for the time being. Mr. Brookes objected and the court sustained him. Clark excepted. Solicitor Clark offered the mayor's docket containing the case in evidence but the squire ruled it out and another exception was noted.

Mr. Clark then stated to the court that he merely wanted to show that this back room was used as a part of the saloon. Officer Earle was recalled and said the location of the place was the same. The solicitor said that since Squire Manley had ruled against him he would at last be able to get a ruling in common pleas and that was just what he wanted. That was supposed the case should be carried up.

The prosecution rested and the witnesses for the defense were called.

Willis Cunningham said he was in Hughes company at the circus on the night of the raid and did not return until 10:30 o'clock—after the arrest had been made. Officer Meador testified that his father and Hughes were together at the circus. James H. Hawkins testified to the same. He said he generally went in the bar each evening and picked up the NEWS REVIEW and Crisis and went to the back room to read them. Mrs. Hughes, he said, had often tended bar. He had seen beer served there, but he told it reluctantly, and wouldn't say that he ever drank any himself. As to the character of the room he said he "could not swear."

James McHenry said he had drank in the room in question, but that night they positively did not play cards. There was a pack of cards laying on the table, and McHenry had a few in his hands. "I have got a glass of beer from Mrs. Hughes more than once."

George Dale said Hughes was not at home when the arrest was made. When Clark asked him what they were doing in the room that night the defense objected, as did they also when he asked if Mrs. Hughes tended bar. The court ruled that if an agency was to be established the question could be answered. Mr. Brookes noted an exception and said, "Your honor is getting the city into another pretty bill of costs."

Clark—Well, the city is able to pay it.

Brookes—It has had several chances.

Clark—Well, it has the cash.

Hughes took the stand in his own defense and said he did not use the room as a drinking place for the public, but for dining room as well. In fact, they had two dining rooms. There was no card playing there, to his knowledge, but there were cards there. His wife, he said, tended bar that night, but she was not a bartender.

The evidence was all in about 4:30 o'clock, and the jury went out about an hour later. The jurors were F. M. Foutts, C. B. Simms, William McCray, Thomas Farmer, Robert Haines, E. D. Williams, J. M. Larkins, A. W. Scott, James Smith, William Mercer and D. F. Nellis. They returned about 8 o'clock with a verdict of guilty. On the second ballot they stood evenly divided.

Squire Manley decided to fine Hughes $10 and costs and although he had not figured up the amount of costs this morning the total will be between $25 and $30. The defense immediately gave notice of a motion for a new trial.

GAREN PLEADS GUILTY.

He Appears at City Hall and Pays a Fine For Card Playing.

This morning Thomas Garen appeared in mayor's court and pleaded guilty to the charge against him, that of playing cards in Hughes' saloon.

This was in accordance with the agreement that the Hughes case should be a test and that the others would plead guilty if he was convicted. Acting Mayor Manley fined him $7.60 and the fine was paid. George Dale appeared this afternoon and was fined $7.60, and James McHenry is expected to appear to-day and settle in like manner.

Although this is a virtual acknowledgement of the charge that there was a game of cards in the saloon, despite the fact that Dale and McHenry swore that they were not playing, it will not have any particular bearing on the case when it goes to common pleas court.

And of course it will go there. Attorney Brookes, when asked this morning, if it would be carried up, replied "most certainly, and on the best of grounds. Even if they did play cards and even if Mrs. Hughes was his agent, Hughes was not responsible for the offense in question. For the court to allow evidence on what Hughes did or did not do before the night he was arrested was decidedly improper, and will, I think, be so viewed by the common pleas judge. Of course, we will first ask for a new trial here."

Solicitor Clark said: "I am perfectly satisfied with the verdict and of course expected that the case will be carried up. The defense will ask for a new trial. They have no grounds unless it should be this so-called 'improper evidence,' and I don't think they will get it."

TO CIRCUIT COURT.

The Hamill Case Will be Carried Up—The Burns Case.

Solicitor Clark will carry the Hamill saloon case to circuit court.

The notice of appeal from common pleas court has been filed and in September the case will again be tried. The grounds for appeal are that Judge Billingsley was in error when he decided against the city. The solicitor is determined to fight this case to the bitter end, as he believes as did 12 good men in this city, that Mrs. Hamill was guilty of selling on Sunday.

As to the Timothy Burns case in which the city was also beaten in Common Pleas, the last has not been heard from it. Burns is still under $100 bond for his appearance in case a new trial is granted. Solicitor Clark says that it is not likely, however, that a new trial will be had unless new evidence is discovered.

TWO PLANS PROPOSED

How Peach Tree Alley Can be Successfully Sewered.

ONLY A QUESTION OF COST

One Sewer Can be Laid Under Ravine Street and Would Cause the Lowering of That Thompson Avenue—Estimates Will be Made.

There was no meeting of the Sewer Commissioners last night as advertised, because of the absence of Messrs. Cartwright and Meyer, but there was a sufficient number present to draw out some strong ideas regarding the proposed improvement.

Because of the large amount of property he owns along the proposed line, C. C. Thompson was invited to meet with the board, and was present. Engineer George brought out that there were two plans for the work, and the adoption of either depends largely on the cost. The first plan is to extend the sewer the whole length of Ravine street, instead of putting it in Peach Tree alley. This would compel the lowering of the sewer on Thompson avenue, and the property owners would be called upon to make connections. The bad places could be filled up with dry dirt, and what is now nothing more than a waste, unsightly and smelling badly, would soon be transformed in appearance, and the danger of disease would be sensibly lessened.

The other plan is to adopt the present route up Ravine street to the first cross alley, and then up Peach Tree to Thompson avenue. This would affect Mr. Thompson, since he owns a large amount of property on the route. It would necessitate the lowering of only a portion of the sewer on Thompson avenue, and in some respects would answer the purpose of carrying off the sewerage as well as any that could be proposed. Engineer George will call a meeting as soon as his calculations are made, and the comparative expense of the two plans will be readily seen. The alley is getting worse every day, and the hot sun beating down upon the many hotbeds of disease along its route is causing residents to hope for speedy relief.

The engineer will estimate the cost of each line, and present the result of his work to the board. All realize the importance of expedition in the matter, but will do nothing until convinced that money will not be recklessly expended when on one route where a cheaper one will answer the same purpose. The Pennsylvania company have manifested a disposition to help in the improvement of the city's sewer system, and it is thought the officials will see the use of $1000 from the company's treasury for that purpose. Huston road promises to be a bone of contention in the near future, and appear in Council sooner or later as needing a sewer, but the commissioners decided that the evil of to-day was enough for them, and let the matter rest until they are called upon to act.

Another phase of the sewer question will appear in the board of health meeting tonight. That body was instructed by the commissioners to call upon property holders to make connections, and the subject will come up at the meeting.

FUN AT WILLIAMSPORT.

Visitors at the Camps—A Fancy Bicycle Rider.

The campers at Williamsport are enjoying themselves hugely these days, and have numerous visitors from this city.

They were visited by Billy McNutt and Bob Logan yesterday and the luckless cyclists met with an accident. McNutt's saddle was broken and they stayed over night. Logan volunteered to ride McNutt's wheel into town this morning by standing on the pedals. He did so in the remarkable time of one and a half hours.

The Lee Camp at Williamsport where I. N. Crable, Rev. Foutts and some of the other crack shots are staying, was visited yesterday by Messrs. Crable and Foutts and Patrolman McMillan. A large capture of squirrels were served at dinner.

IMPALED ON A STICK.

A Liverpool Boy Had a Bad Accident at Dell Roy.

The little son of George Turner, a Franklin street saloonist, met with a severe accident at Dell Roy a few days ago and was brought home today.

The lad has been staying with relatives in Dell Roy and while standing on a bridge he saw a turtle in the creek below. He followed the first impulse and leaped into the water to catch it.

Instead he alighted on a sharp stick that protruded from the mud. The stick entered the calf of his right leg and tore a bad hole in the flesh. The lad almost died from the loss of blood and the attending physician found it necessary to scrape the bone.

A PAIR OF MISHAPS.

Bicycle and Buggy Responsible For the Injuries of Two Children.

A couple of accidents happened at almost the same spot last night and this morning, but fortunately neither resulted in serious injuries for the victims.

The little son of Mr. Jackson the barber was playing with a number of other lads, engaged in imitating a big circus with free street parade, after the custom of the average Liverpool youngster. A buggy occupied by Miss Adams, a daughter of the fire chief, came along and the crowd of children was so large that before she could stop the horse it had struck young Jackson and knocked him down. He was carried into Chal Peterson's and an examination showed that he had sustained bad cuts on his face and the back of his head, and he was bruised about the body. He was taken home, and although sore today, his injuries will not prove serious. The accident had a good effect on the crowd, but the clearing of the streets of the gatherings of youngsters each night would be more effective and prevent what means loss of life some day.

While the little son of Max Coney was crossing Market street near Fifth this morning he was struck by the bicycle of a passing wheelman, whose name was not learned. He was knocked down by the handle bars and bruised about the face considerably. The lad's nose bled but he did not seem to be injured badly and he ran to his home on Market street crying.

ESTERLINE IS GONE.

His Creditors Could Not Touch the Goods.

L. Esterline, the proprietor of the Hilbert House, has closed his affairs and his household goods were shipped today. The lease mentioned exclusively in this paper yesterday saved him a lot of trouble and work, and when he showed it, his creditors knew he was in the lead and they could not hold his goods. Among the creditors who mourn the happening are General Riley, Crook & McGraw and Jethro Manley, Jr.

This morning Joseph Turnbull entered suit in the court of Squire Rose for $28.80, with L. Esterline and H. B. Esterline defendants. The case is set for trial at the same hour as that of Ferd Oschman in Squire Manley's court, 8 o'clock on Monday morning next.

DISTURBED THE TRIAL.

Jack Delaney Will Pay a Fine or Go To Canton For So Doing.

When the trial was in progress at city hall yesterday afternoon, Jack Delaney endeavored to start in opposition to Solicitor Clark. He made one speech without any more attention than a warning glance from Chief Gill, but when he attempted to talk again and take the floor, already well occupied by the solicitor, there was determination in the chief's eye. He walked Delaney out of the room in short order, and when he reached the foot of the stairs, he locked him up.

This morning Acting Mayor Manley fined him $9.60 and committed him to the workhouse unless he paid it. He is still in jail.

REPUBLICAN EDITORS MEET.

They Will Visit General Bushnell in a Body.

A call signed by John Hopely, president, and C. B. McCoy, secretary of the Republican editors of Ohio, will gather the editors at Columbus on August 6. The meeting this year is of more than ordinary importance, since it will probably end in a visit to General Bushnell at his home in Springfield. In spite of the much talked of battle in the Zanesville convention, the heads of Republican papers in Ohio are all for the standard bearer, and no little importance is attached to the visit by politicians the state over.

BEYOND A DOUBT.

The Bridge Grows More of a Certainty, If Possible, Every Day.

H. H. Swaney, one of the bridge company, was in town yesterday in consultation with J. E. McDonald, and the smiles which wreathed his countenance is ample proof that one more step has been taken. In conversation with a representative of this paper he refused to say anything for publication, but with a merry twinkle in his eye he remarked "keep your eye open next week, and I wouldn't be surprised to read in the NEWS REVIEW that something has happened."

SET IT IN THE STREET

An Opinion About the Location of City Hall.

LET TRAFFIC PASS UNDER

The Plan Would Make An Imposing City Building of the Old Brick Trap, and Four Neat Grass Plats at the Corners of the Square.

Move city hall to where Market street crosses Third, make it a handsome building, transform the rubbish piles on the four corners to pretty grass plats, and you have an idea of what C. C. Thompson thinks would be a vast improvement to the city.

The idea was advanced last evening, and it is worthy of attention because of its novelty, if for no other reason. Mr. Thompson would have the city move the municipal building to the center of the street crossing, and set it up upon a well-built foundation. He would have this foundation so built as to be attractive, and leave an open way under the building for wagons and general travel. The foundations could be made of ornamental stone work at as great a cost as the city desired, and the building could be improved to make a very decent appearance.

The plats on each corner of the square could then be made pretty lawns, and the city could spend as much or as little money on their adornment and furnishing as Council imagined we could afford. With City Hall perched upon a foundation it could be seen from the river, the railroad and the Diamond, and the effect would be marked to say the least.

If the city really intends to do something in this line here is an opportunity worth noting. The plan would be expensive, that is beyond denial, but no pretty thing can be made without spending money. Any improvement will cost money, particularly the making of a public square where the people can find flowers and green grass.

BROKE THE WINDOWS.

A Little Episode at the East End Pottery.

The watchman at the East End pottery last night heard the falling of glass, and rushing around the pottery found that someone had broken four windows with the intention of stealing ware, as they were broken where the ware was piled. He called for the police, and Chief Gill went up in the patrol wagon to find the man had escaped. A road through the corn field showed the direction he had taken, but he could not be found. The only other time the pottery was disturbed was when the watchman threw a hatchet at a suspicious looking party who insisted on hanging around.

A STRONG EXPRESSION.

The Fanatics in the Diamond Were Jeered Last Night.

A jeering crowd surrounded the holiness people in the Diamond last evening, and some unusually strong expressions were greeted with shouts and hisses when the man in the middle pronounced the Methodist, Presbyterian and all other churches the offshoot of the "mother of harlots." There were signs of a rush, the angry audience getting a little closer than they were before. The demonstration soon died out, and he was allowed to continue his wild harangue. It was nothing more than the usual tirade of abuse, directed particularly at the churches.

EASILY SAID.

The Kinneman Circus is a Thing of the Past.

The Kinneman show was sold yesterday afternoon to Parkersburg people, and the goods were shipped there this morning. The price was $163, and about covered the obligations of the proprietor. His personal effects were shipped to Pittsburg. Kinneman's circus venture is a story of deception and hard luck, although the man is evidently honest and has worked hard to get out of the troublesome way in which he drifted these past few months.

PART OF THE PROGRAM.

The Big Attractions at Spring Grove Are Announced.

When Spring Grove campmeeting opens a week from yesterday a goodly attendance is sincerely hoped, for the principal speaker on the following Sunday will be Dr. J. P. D. John, president of De Pauw university, Greencastle, Ind. Dr. H. Johnson, of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, will arrive on Wednesday, and remain over the second Sunday. The new tent and other improvements about the grounds make Spring Grove more attractive than ever.

With General Harrison out of the race, Mr. Reed may emerge from his wood yard and declare his intentions.

The Republican editors of Ohio will pay honestly earned honor to General Bushnell when they call on him next month.

The Democrats who say the tariff does not affect the importations of crockery should keep an eye upon the record at the end of August. Perhaps their eyes will be opened to the enormity of the mistake.

ONE of the certainties of politics is the result of the enforcement of the liquor laws in New York city. Mayor Strong is everything his name implies, and is shrewd enough to know the people will revolt at the next election, but he has his duty to perform. In spite of this sacrifice, the mayor will as usual be the mark of Prohibition vituperation and abuse.

A DEMOCRATIC DEAL.

The Cleveland World touches an interesting subject when it remarks:
"That Brice has agreed to dictate
the nomination of Congressman Paul
S. Sorg of Butler county for governor, is now conceded by all who are in a position to know. Sorg's $15,000,000 will aid the senator in keeping his personal expenses down this year very materially. The conference between Sorg and Brice at the Holland House in New York city the other day was an important affair to Ohio Democrats.
The Democracy was parceled out by these two leaders and the details will be sent to their respective lieutenants by wire as soon as agreed upon. By the way, why do Ohio Democrats go so far away from home to divide up the state?"

NO ARGUMENT IN ABUSE.

If the men who write and talk of the money question will stop the abuse of each other long enough to give an intelligent array of facts connected with the respective sides of the matter, they will have furnished some excuse for the long, uninteresting dissertations they foist upon the public.
The whole nation is interested in the great question, and is hungry for information, but sick and tired of the "crime of 1873," "worthless metal,"
"gold bugs of Wall street," and the "thousand and one" expressions used by gold and silver men alike in the presentation of what they pretend to believe are powerful doctrines. Abuse is not argument, and the man who veils
the facts at his disposal in wicked words against his opponent, usually has the small end of the battle and is on the high road to defeat. When these men leave their personal abuse and begin to talk fact, the public will manifest sufficient interest to warrant the effort.

HORR AND HARVEY HOT

They Slash Each Other Lively
In the Debate.

HARVEY ROASTS CONGRESSMEN.

Horror Defends Them and Tries to Hold
His Opponent Down to the Act of 1873—Denies It Passed Without Free
Discussion and Knowledge.

CHICAGO, July 19.—It was knife to the hilt the third day of the Horr-Harvey encounter. Mr. Horr opened up the sharp work right at the start. He said his opponent stated, "Mr. Horr has only taught in this debate a proposition
that is in the interest of every selfish moneylender in the world to advocate,
and he is here advocating it." Mr.
Horr denied this and told of his life struggle for success, saying he had the greatest sympathy for the laboring man.

Mr. Horr then continued to argue:
"The act of 1873 was prepared after submitting the question to a large number of experts all over the United States. We had never had a revision of the mint laws for a number of years,
and the men in charge of the mint thought that the time had come when something should be done. Among the men consulted upon the question were Mr. Boatwell, the secretary of the treasury; Mr. Knox, deputy controller of the currency; Mr. Linderman, the director of the mint, and Mr. Parsons, superintendent of the mint at Philadelphia; and my friend here intimates that this must have been wicked because it was hatched on the revision of the mint laws. Why that is where it belonged. That was the place to put
it. The bill, with the correspondence, was submitted to congress in the most complete form and with an elaborate report from Mr. Knox, which explained all its provisions. Thousands of copies of the bill were sent broadcast to all parts of the country. The Bankers' Magazine, in its number of July, 1870, reported this report of Mr. Knox and commented on the same.

"The bill prepared by Mr. Knox was endorsed by Secretary Boatwell of the treasury and transmitted to the senate on April 2, 1870. The bill, as it was at the time drafted, dropped the dollar silver coin of the United States and changed the unit of value. That was in the original bill as it was sent to the senate with a letter from the secretary.
Now, nobody tried to cover up that fact. In this report of Mr. Knox were found all the letters of these different experts to whom had been sent a draft of the bill and who had been asked for their opinion upon it. These letters were all printed by order of the secretary in connection with the carefully prepared report of Mr. Knox. Mr. Patterson wrote to Mr. Knox and his letter was printed in the public documents. Mr. Patterson said: 'The silver dollar, half, dime
and three cent piece are dispensed with by this amendment. Gold becomes the standard money of which the gold dollar is a unit. Silver is subordinate, embracing coins from the dime to half dollars.' Can anything be more plain than that. Was there any covering up of anything in that letter?"

Mr. Harvey branched off into an attack on the moral condition of congress at that time.

Mr. Horr accused him of trying to besmirch the character of congressmen in general and defended them. He then said:

"But what has that to do with the question whether Mr. Knox openly and squarely presented this bill to congress.
Mr. Knox said himself: 'The coinage of the silver dollar piece, the history of which is here given, is discontinued in the proposed bill. It is by law the dollar unit. The present gold dollar piece is made the dollar unit of the proposed bill.' (A voice in the audience: When was that written?)

Mr. Horr: "Just before it was sent to congress in 1870. It was a part of the report that Secretary Boatwell sent to the senate in the session of 1870. It accompanied the bill and was printed in the public documents as being an explanation of the bill by order of the senate. Is there anything hidden in those statements?"

Mr. Harvey said: "The salary grab bill passed March 3, 1874. The people rose en masse and forced congress to repeal this bill, little dreaming at the time that another bill had passed at that congress that rob them of millions of dollars. The people could understand the salary grab, but they could not understand a scientific spoliation of their rights. [Applause.] To make plain how the fraud was practiced, I copy into my remarks sections 15 and 16 of the bill, as it is supposed to have been read when in its passage, together with the words fraudulently enacted in brackets. Omit the words in brackets and you have these sections: [Applause.]
now read on the statutes, include the words in brackets and you have the sections as the bill was supposed to have passed congress."

Mr. Horr: "By whom?"
Mr. Horr: "By whom? What proof
have you that anything was erased?"
Mr. Harvey: "I'll get to the proof that Congress did rob them of millions of dollars. The standard silver dollar was fraudulently omitted after the bill had passed both houses." [Applause.]
Mr. Harvey quoted Judge
Kelley, chairman of the committee reporting the bill, to show that in 1873
we were not using coin, and that neither house appreciated the scope and magnitude of the bill, or had given it special study particularly as it was a bill to reorganize the mint, not to revise the coin money of the country. Mr. Harvey again took up his attack on the character of statesmen.

Mr. Horr again defended them and said: "But what has all that to do with whether this bill was properly presented and discussed. I am familiar with what Mr. Kelley said afterwards, but I now read you what he said when this bill was up in the house and it is not a speech that was printed 'by leave.'
This took place right on the floor of the house. It is impossible to retain the double standard. The value of gold and silver continually fluctuates; you cannot determine this year what will be the relative value of gold and silver

next year. They were 15 to 1 a short time ago; they are 15 to 1 now. Hence, all experience has shown that you must have one standard coin which shall be a legal tender for all others."

Mr. Horr then took up the history of the demonetization act and proceeded to show the stages through which it had passed, and that its final enactment was not till after it had been before congress for nearly three years.

Mr. Harvey then returned to the attack upon the honesty of legislators throughout the country and Mr. Horr defended them. The bill again proceeded with the history of the demonetization of silver, pointing out how the bill had been read in full several times, and printed separately 11 times,
and twice in the reports of the commissioner of the currency. The debate in the senate on it occupied 96 columns in The Congressional Record. In the report of the committee it was stated that it had been examined line by line and word by word and was finally passed. He would show that in so doing the senate knew what it was about.

Mr. Harvey in reply, said that Mr.
Horr would have to retract from his position when the proper time came.
In point of fact, the bill about which he had been talking, was not the bill finally passed. Judge Kelley, in presented the bill in the house, said that it was merely a confiscation of the mint laws.

In response to a question, Judge
Kelley replied that the bill made no change in the value of the coin and the nation. In 1873, when the bill came up again, it was spoken of as a bill on a dry subject and members lost interest.
It was at that time, as appears from the records that the first disclosure of the intention to change the standard to gold was made in a speech by Mr. Hopper.
But there was reason to believe that the speech was not actually delivered, but was printed by leave, and that it was read from manuscript and those words omitted. But no reference was made to the demonetization of silver. On the enrollment of the bill, a clause was omitted, which had the effect of limiting the coinage of silver.

Mr. Horr, replying, charged Mr. Harvey with quoting a single sentence and leaving out the modifying context. The Record showed that this statement was made in the morning debate and was not under leave to print. In the very speech referred to by Mr. Harvey, the speaker said this bill provided for a standard, "in a single metal," instead of as before, in two metals, and that all coins, except subsidiary coins, should be of gold. Mr. Horr then spoke on the demonetization of silver in 1816, as the result of experience in the use of the double standard. In 1871 Germany adopted the gold standard and threw on the market $300,000,000 in silver.
It was this that set the world to considering the silver question—not any gold bug conspiracy. The financial policy of no great nation was ever dominated by a conspiracy.

This closed the debate for the day,
except the answering of questions by the disputants propounded by members of the audience.

Adjournment was taken until Saturday.

Boys Murder Their Mother.

LONDON, July 19.—When the chief steward of the National Line steamship France, now on his way to New York on board that vessel, reaches the United States he will receive terrible news.
His sons—Robert Combs, 13 years old,
and Nathaniel Combs, 11 years old—murdered their mother at Plaistow, an eastern suburb of London, on July 8.
The boys stabbed her while she was sleeping and kept the body for nine days in the house in which the crime was committed. When the remains of the unfortunate woman were discovered the two boys were playing cards. The only reason given by the lads for their crime is that Mrs. Combs whipped the younger of them.

A Defaulting Teller Caught.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., July 19.—The United States authorities have arrived here with C. M. Wilkinson, formerly teller in the Huntington National bank in this city. Wilkinson robbed the bank of many thousands of dollars a few months since, and when about to be detected, skipped out and has since traveled all over the country. He was arrested in Chicago.

Oh's Murderer Found Guilty.

TRENTON, July 19.—The jury in the case of John Collins, accused of the murder of Frederick P. Ohl, the Princeton student, has returned a verdict of murder in the second degree.

OHIO CITY MAY GET IT.

Hahn Talks of the Next Republican National Convention.

EITHER CLEVELAND OR CINCINNATI

Will Be Worked For by the Secretary, Provided They Are Applicants—Other Cities Applying—The Committee to Select the Place in the Fall.

COLUMBUS, July 19.—Hon. William M. Hahn, secretary of the National Republican executive committee, says that he met Chairman Carter of the national committee some days since,
and they discussed the probable time
of the next meeting of that organization, and concluded it ought to be some time in September or October. Mr.
Hahn said: "I think it well to make it as early as September or October, so as to give any one of the several cities
which are applicants to secure the location of the convention, ample time in which to prepare."

"I would vote and use what influence I have in favor of either Cincinnati or Cleveland, provided they are applicants."

"I am in receipt of a large number of letters, among the cities being Chicago, St. Louis, St. Paul, St. Louis and San Francisco, with some liberal promises. The people of the Pacific coast are most earnest and persistent."

B. & O. Will Control the Valley.

CLEVELAND, July 19.—The announcement from New York of an agreement between the reorganization committees of the Valley Railroad company created little surprise here, where such a result has been anticipated. A gentleman who is in a position to know the facts
says the agreement will insure the continued control of the Valley by the Baltimore and Ohio company, and that there will be no combination with other roads. The Wheeling and Lake Erie will have a traffic arrangement with the Baltimore and Ohio, under which it will run its trains into Cleveland.

Strike Likely to Be Settled Soon.

CLEVELAND, July 19.—It is probable that the wire-drawers' strike in this city will be settled very soon. A committee of the strikers have held a conference with the officials of the company, at which the latter sought to show by their books that the wire-drawers here had been receiving higher wages than paid for similar work in other cities. A meeting of the workmen was called immediately after the conference to consider the advisability of returning to work. Over 2,500 men are idle on account of the strike.

Flint Elect New Officers.

TOLEDO, July 19.—The American Flint Glassworkers' convention adjourning after electing the following officers: President, William Smith, Pittsburg; vice president, William Dooling, Millville, N. J.; secretary, John Kunzler, Pittsburg; assistant secretary,
William J. Clair, Pittsburg; treasurer,
William Smith, Pittsburg. An executive board was also chosen.

Saved by a Dog Barking.

CINCINNATI, July 19.—The barking of a watchdog prevented the total destruction of the Price Hill machine power house, which would have been a loss of $135,000 and cut off the communication of 10,000 suburbanites. The dog's efforts caused a prompt alarm to be turned in. The damage by the fire was only $5,000, and the incline resumed traffic before noon.

Caused by Water-soaked Walls.

CINCINNATI, July 19.—The coroner's inquest on the death of Michael Healy and Thomas Wisbey at the recent fire developed that the walls of the old commission warehouse had been water-soaked by the floods ten years ago. It is believed the building inspector will be directed to examine the walls of all buildings in the flooded district.

Edwards Given a Respite.

COLUMBUS, July 19.—Isaac L. Edwards was not executed last night.
Governor McKinley has granted a certain gentleman 60 days to show that the testimony by which Edwards was said to have shown premeditation was perjury. He killed Mrs. Sarah Sellers, a married woman, because she rejected
his attention.

Girl Killed by a Car.

TOLEDO, July 19.—Grace Schlatter, a

GUNS TO FIGHT BECK

Settlers Will Resist the Winnebago Indian Agent.

NEBRASKA COURTS INTERFERE.

An Injunction Served to Prevent Captain Beck and the Indian Police From Evicting the Settlers—Beck Says He Will Enforce the Laws.

OMAHA, July 19.—Messrs. Peebles and Harris, who came to Omaha from Pender as a committee to secure rifles for the evicted tenants, announce that they have completed their mission.

"We have secured the guns which we came for. We were unable to get exactly what we wanted, but did the best we could. The wholesalers managed to get together for us 100 rifles and 5,000 rounds of ammunition. We had to take rifles of two different makes and of several different sizes. We expect to gain our point by a show of strength, although in case of trouble, we are ready to stand by Sheriff Mullin in anything that he may order."

A special from Pender says: "The injunction restraining Captain Beck from evicting settlers on the Winnebago reservation was served on him by Sheriff Mullin by leaving the order at Beck's office, he being in Sioux City. The writ was also served on the two leaders of the police. There have been no more evictions, the Indian police waiting for Beck's return. If he should ignore the order there will be bloodshed. The guns and cartridges sent for through Peebles and Harris arrived, and 300 deputies can be armed at a moment's notice. There is no excitement among the settlers on the disputed lands nor among the people of Pender, but they are all determined that the law shall be enforced."

A Sioux City (Ia.) special says: Captain W. H. Beck, agent for the Omaha and Winnebago reservation, is in Sioux City. "I do not understand the action of Judge Norris in issuing an injunction," said he. "I do not believe the state court has any jurisdiction in this matter."

I telegraphed to Washington in regard to the matter. I don't anticipate any bloodshed, but you may be sure that the laws of the United States will be enforced, no matter at what cost. If my authority is resisted, it means that of course, anything of that kind will be put down at once."

STAMBULOFF IS DEAD.

The Bulgarian Statesman Succumbs to the Assassins' Wounds.

SOFIA, July 19.—Mr. Stamboulloff, who was murdered by four men while returning home from the Union club on Monday night, is dead. All hope of the ex-premier's recovery was abandoned when it was noticed that meningitis had supervened, and thereafter the sufferer did not recognize any one.

A catalogue is being prepared upon which the remains will lie in state. The amputated hands of the murdered man have been preserved in alcohol. The interment will take place on Saturday.

The government has not yet proposed to give the remains of Mr. Stamboulloff a state funeral. The widow of the deceased statesman received many telegrams of condolence from high personages in different parts of Europe.

TREASURY LOSES GOLD.

The Officials Believe the Bond Syndicate Can Furnish Protection.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The treasury has lost $23,182 in gold, leaving the reserve $106,807,905. The amount of gold withdrawn since July 1 is $1,232,182, nearly all of which, it is assumed, was exported. There were, however, some gains through the mints and assay offices, making the net loss during the last 18 days $733,470.

The treasury officials have no apprehension of any considerable withdrawal of gold for export. They have absolute confidence in the ability and determination of the syndicate to protect the treasury, and so far have seen nothing that indicates to them a purpose to withdraw their protection.

A Robber Deacon Sentenced.

UCLA, Cal., July 19.—Deacon Oldham, the prominent, Baptist churchman on trial for stage robbery, has been sentenced to 12 years in Folsom prison. Oldham planned robbery in which Hilton, who was in the deacon's employ was the principal. They divided $1,000. Hilton, the principal, received only eight years.

BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE.

Their Convention in Session in Baltimore. Given a Hearty Welcome.

BALTIMORE, July 19.—The fifth international convention of the Baptist Young People's Union of America is in session. The decorations are simple. The colors of the union—red, white, blue and yellow—are festooned in front of the officers stage, and on the poles supporting the tent are miniature flags of the United States, Great Britain and of the Young People's union.

President John H. Chapman of Chicago was very happy in his address, and called forth much laughter when he alluded to the warm hearts and warm sun of the south. Skeptics and pessimists were referred to the recent great convention in Boston and the present gathering as the best answer to their doubts and despondency.

Mr. Eugene Levering, chairman of the board of trade of Baltimore, delivered the address of welcome on behalf of the churches of Baltimore. Mr. Levering was followed by Mayor LaTrobe, who gave to the delegates an earnest and cordial welcome to Baltimore and Maryland, and said that all crowds were Baptists in giving greeting to the Young People's union. Rev. H. M. Wharton, D. D., made the address on behalf of the Baptist Young People's societies of Baltimore. Various papers were then read and reports made.

DEPEW IN ENGLAND.

He Says Tammany Is Gaining Strength From Exile Law Enforcement.

SOUTHAMPTON, July 19.—Among the passengers landed here by the steamship Paris, of the American line, is Dr. Chauncey M. Depew. He said in conversation with your representative: "Almost the whole Republican party and two-thirds of the Democratic party are opposed to the free coinage of silver. There is a strong bimetallic feeling in both parties, based on hope of an international agreement. Silver will not be made an issue of much moment in the presidential election."

As to local politics in New York Tammany is gaining strength from the same reasons which have so enormously helped the Conservatives here, namely, the unanimous support of the liquor interest, owing in this country, to the the Radical adoption of local option. The rigid enforcement of the excise law in New York is rapidly rehabilitating Tammany."

"If the Republican National convention was to meet now Mr. McKinley would largely lead the other candidates, but there are so many contingencies before it meets."

Anti-Cigarette Law Unconstitutional.

WHEELING, July 19.—Judge Nathan Goff of the United States circuit court for this district has handed down a decision declaring unconstitutional the law passed recently by the West Virginia legislature, imposing a license of $500 per year on retail dealers in cigarettes and cigarette paper. The law virtually killed the cigarette business in this state, as persons could only buy in wholesale lots. The law was tested by the American Tobacco company, (the trust) with the above results.

The Shooter May Lose His Mind.

BRAZIL, Ind., July 19.—County Clerk John Werhle, who was mistaken for a burglar and shot Tuesday night by Hon. George A. Knight, has died. Mr. Knight is suffering mentally and his friends are afraid that he will lose his mind.

The annual talk of a foot ball club which never materializes is making its appearance, but hopes for an organization that will defeat Steubenville and humble Beaver Falls are more pronounced than usual because of the physical director plan at the Young Men's Christian association.

A rumor was afloat on the street today that Brunt's Opera House would be opened in September, and James E. Orr, late manager of the Grand, would be in charge. Mr. Orr stated this morning that there was nothing definite and he could say nothing about it. As he did not deny the story there is probably some truth in it.

Many Liverpool people remember Thomas Robinson, a young man who had the misfortune to lose an arm and afterward conducted a billiard room in this city, but has in late years been living in Lisbon and will be glad to know that he was this week married to Miss Cora Evans, of Wheeling. The wedding is a surprise, but his friends will congratulate the happy groom none the less heartily.

The increase of rates announced by the Bridgewater Gas Company has raised a howl from the farthest end of Jethro to a point beyond the driving park. They claim bad treatment on the part of the company, and say they have been put to enough expense in the purchase of meters. If they quit using the gas now they have a meter on their hands and no means of selling it. They laugh at the statement of the Company that its consumers have been saving $50,000 by the meters, and say the saving was probably in some other town.

The sole topic of conversation on Lincoln avenue these days is the proposed change of grade, and some remarks are amusing in the extreme. One man was heard wondering the other evening how high he would be in the air, and another was calculating on the number of steps he would have to climb every day in order to reach the street. The water pipe question also occupies some attention, and one citizen expressed it thoroughly when he remarked that it was all right to talk about change in the grade when the city lowered the pipes, but all wrong when the property owners paid the bill.

IN MEMORIAM.

A Tribute to the Memory of the Late Chas. A. Pancake.

The University Herald published at Ada, where the late Chas. A. Pancake was educated, contains the following in a recent issue.

"Charles A. Pancake was born at Achon, O., Oct. 3, 1870, and died at East Liverpool July 2, 1890. He first entered the O. N. U. Jan. 1, 1891. After spending one term in the literary department he returned home. He returned in the autumn and began the study of pharmacy. After spending two terms in this department he again returned home. Returning in the fall he completed the course with high honors. His instructors have repeatedly remarked that he was one of the brightest scholars ever in the O. N. U.

He accepted a position in a drug store at New Lisbon, which position he filled to the entire satisfaction of his employers. Returning to Ada in the spring of '94, he spent a few weeks in preparation for the state examination. He passed the examination at Columbus, being the first to complete the work, and also received the highest grade of any one in the class.

He located at East Liverpool, buying a half interest in the firm of Albright & Albright. After a few months he purchased the remaining interest. Becoming the sole proprietor, he made many additions and improvements to his store.

His business career was eminently successful. He entered the city comparatively a stranger, yet in less than a year, by lawful and conscientious work, he had built up a thriving trade, and had won the confidence and esteem of the people.

His death resulted from typhoid pneumonia, after an illness of about three weeks. While in Ada he found many acquaintances, every one of whom will be filled with sadness to hear of his untimely death.

He was one of those grand, splendid boys who have made the world better by having lived in it. A kind word to every one, a greeting, an accommodation, he easily won his way into the hearts of all who knew him.

The flower of his life was moral grandeur. None better, none manlier, none stronger than he ever lived.

He was a positive character, yet everybody loved him. His funeral was attended by a large concourse of sympathizing friends. His grave was ornamented ready to receive the casket by an affectionate Ada friend, with white and evergreen, typical of his life and character. The Knights of the Maccabees and Sons of Veterans officiated at his funeral. Upon the altar of the sweet memory of this dear son, brother and friend, hope lays a bud—a promise of brighter and better things—and love drops a tear to keep that memory fresh.

WHITE CAP WARNING.

A Respectable Man Annoyed By Anonymous Letters.

A well known potter, who would not allow the use of his name, has been receiving letters recently which cost him no end of trouble. They purport to be warnings from an alleged band of white caps, who promise to give him a sound thrashing and a dip in the river if he continues to abuse his wife. At first he thought it nothing more than a joke, but after two threatening epistles had been added to the original letter he began to think of persecution. If another letter comes he will report it to the postal authorities, but hopes this will be a warning to the foolish people who write them.

MASHED THE WHEEL.

And Almost Broke the Arm of the Wheelman.

When Porter Herbert was speeding on the race track in East End last night one toe clip slipped from his foot, and he became tangled up in the wheel. He was doing his best speed, and the fall was the hardest Herbert has ever experienced. The foot was in some way caught in the machine, and the rider was thrown heavily on his side. His arm was so painfully injured that he carries it in a sling, and the wheel was broken almost beyond repair. It will be shipped to the factory, as the spokes were broken and the frame bent.

KILLING FISH.

Dynamite Used Again With Telling Effect In Beaver Creek.

A story comes from St. Clair township this morning that a party of men supposed to be from Liverpool discharged a small amount of dynamite in Beaver creek last night not far from the mouth. The cartridge was small, and the damage was not great, but it so angered the campers that they would have lynched the crowd had they been captured.

A STRONG JAW.

A New Jersey Man Who Bites Nails in Two.

Tony Bertele, the barber, has in his possession three large spikes, 50 penny nails, the ends of which are bitten off as nicely as though a machine had done it; but it didn't. They were bitten by a brother of Tony, who is also a barber. He practices on biting every day, and manages to get away with 20 spikes in two seconds every morning. His jaws are so constructed and his teeth so powerful that he bites the spikes in two without trouble. He will quit barbering in the fall, and travel as a museum attraction, on a comfortable salary.

HUNTING PLEASURE.

Parties Go to England and to Summer Resorts.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mountford and Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Massey left last night for New York, and this morning boarded a vessel for England, where they will visit a few months with old friends.

Colin Bloor sailed from Philadelphia today for a short stay on the other side of the big ocean.

John I. Hodson, Mrs. Chapman and Miss Mary Smith have gone to Mount Lake Park, Md., for a few weeks' stay.

Walter B. Hill went to Marquette, Mich., this morning, where he will visit.

DECIDEDLY DULL.

The Crockery Business in New York Is Not Booming.

The New York correspondent of China, Glass and Lamps says this of trade:

"Business in the crockery and glassware trade centered here is virtually at a standstill, not to undergo a further movement until the fall season opens with the first weeks of August. Buyers are few and far between in the district in these days. Some of the bigger houses have closed for the time one or two of the departments, and one-half or more of the employees of the different establishments are taking advantage of the slack in snatching a brief holiday."

LOST HIS WATCH.

Probably Stolen By One of a Crowd of Boys.

George Crow, of Sixth street, was walking through the old cemetery last evening in company with other boys after playing at the West End park, when they were joined by three young men unknown to them. When George reached home he found the chain hanging in front of his coat, and his watch gone. A diligent search over the ground failed to reveal the presence of the watch, and the boys were at length compelled to admit that someone had stolen it, perhaps one of the strangers. The watch was valued highly as a keepsake.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE.

Another Testimonial of the News Review as a Medium.

William Miller, president of the South Bend National bank, South Bend, Ind., advertised a property for sale in the NEWS REVIEW a short time ago, and in writing to have it discontinued he says he has received a number of inquiries from responsible parties as a result of the advertisement in this paper, and is so sure he has found a purchaser that he wants it stopped. The NEWS REVIEW is an advertising medium which brings returns.

WELLSVILLE IS FEARFUL.

Board of Health Issues a Smallpox Proclamation.

Wellsville is afraid that smallpox will get a hold in the town, and the board of health has issued a proclamation asking the hotels to refuse entertainment to travelers who have visited any of the towns down the river, where the disease is known to exist. The penalty for breaking the rule is 14 days of retirement, which will make it very generally observed. All people are asked to have themselves vaccinated if they have never passed through that experience and a general cleaning up is ordered.

BEFORE AND AFTER.

Some Want Divorces and Others Marriage Licenses at Lisbon.

LISBON, July 19.—George W. Coy, of Salem, petitions the court for a divorce from his wife, Mary Coy, and the custody of their three year-old child. The couple were married in Mansfield in 1891 and in '93 Mrs. Coy deserted her husband and he claims she has since lived with a man in Des Moines, Ia.

Marriage licenses were issued today to William Yarnan and Miss Kittle Cooklin, S. A. Rinehart and Lulu B. Fuels.

ALMOST DONE.

The New Bridge in East End Can Be Used Tomorrow.

Work on the new bridge in East End, where the street car line crosses the run near the Second Methodist Episcopal church, is almost completed, and it is thought teams can cross by tomorrow.

A temporary crossing over the run has been made with boards and has proven a convenience.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—M. E. Golding went to Chautauqua this morning.

—Mrs. (Fisel) and daughter, of Clarkston, are visiting in town.

—Miss Rosa Brown, of Salineville, spent yesterday with friends here.

—Miss Gertie Adams, of Canal Dover, is visiting friends in this city.

—John H. DeVeny, of Salineville, was the guest of friends here yesterday.

—C. H. Hance is a guest at Alum Chiffs, the country home of J. R. Warner.

—Mrs. W. H. Surles and Mrs. Fannie Wylie and daughter were in Pittsburgh today.

—Reverend Baker, of Warren, O., is a guest at the residence of J. L. Morris, on Sixth street.

—Mrs. Moses Collier and daughter and Miss Maria Colclough, of Trenton, are visiting Mrs. L. C. Brooke, East End.

A Rousing Time.

Two young men, said to be from Wellsville, created commotion in a farm house over the river yesterday. They pretended they were hungry, and wanted something to eat, but the woman of the house would have none of it, and ordered them away. They became angry, and used language unfit for the time and place, and she called her son. The Wellsville boys left as soon as possible, but not before each had been promised a thrashing if they ever came back.

Why They Called Them Trilby Pies.

"A Brooklyn man is selling a brand of pies known as the Trilby, can you guess why he has given them that name?" asked one East Liverpool man of another.

"Naw," came the surly answer.

"Why?"

"Because there's nothing in them," and he got away in time to dodge a brick.

Douglas' Best Word.

The murder of bicyclist Lenz near Ezerom last year is claiming the attention of the state department at Washington, even though A. W. Terrell, the minister to Turkey, has become decidedly pro-Turk in his sympathies. A man who could write a poem eulogizing the assassin of Lincoln naturally would take to anything unpatriotic.—Salem News.

A Couple of Cases.

The case of The German Insurance Company versus E. K. Chamberlain will come up in the court of Squire Rose for hearing this afternoon.

The case of J. M. Mason versus William Pilgrim, sr., was to have been heard by Squire Morley to-day, but was continued on till August 19, when the attorneys vacation will be a thing of the past.

Sliter & Badgley.

The retail commission merchants can now be found at the corner of Fourth and Washington streets, where they will serve you with the best goods in the market at reasonable prices. It will pay you to call on them.

Wanted.

A house centrally located; modern conveniences; a desirable tenant; if any inducement rent will be paid in advance. Apply to C. E. Macrum.

Outwitted the Spanish Police.

KINOSTON, Jamaica, July 19.—An open boat laden with arms left Oracabessa the other night for Cabina Point, there to meet boats from other creeks, similarly laden. The contents of those were transhipped to open boats from the Cuban coast in the open sea, which made back to the Cuban coast with their supplies of war material. The police, who are keeping a sharp lookout for such attempts, were thus outwitted.

Bad Marsh Fire in Michigan.

GALESBURG, Mich., July 19.—The fire in the marsh south of here is eating its way to the uplands. A change in the direction of the wind has caused the destruction of the greater portion of some 600 cords of firewood, and the blaze has reached the farm of Mr. Leffler, on the outskirts of the marsh. The big marsh southwest from here is also on fire and the crops on the extensive peppermint farms are being destroyed.

Georgia Free Silver Convention.

GRIFFEN, Ga., July 19.—The principal event at the Georgia free silver convention held here was the speech of Senator Morgan of Alabama. Evan P. Howell, chairman of the committee of resolutions, read the platform, which was identical with that adopted by the recent free silver convention in Memphis.

Pullman Ex-Employees Go South.

CHICAGO, July 19.—The Homesteaders' association, through the Rev. W. H. Cardwine, one of the directors, has shipped a number of the Pullman ex-employees to new homes in St. Charles, La. The association has secured them employment there, and if those who left Chicago are satisfied about 40 families from Pullman will leave in the fall.

Trains Delayed by Forest Fires.

CADILLAC, Mich., July 19.—Forest fires are raging so furiously in this vicinity that trains on both the Grand Rapids and Indianapolis, and Toledo, Ann Arbor and Northern Michigan roads are forced to lay over in this city. Large quantities of logs, cedar posts and ties piled along the track have been licked up by the fire feed.

Interfined "Celluloid" Collars and Cuffs are a water like a duck's back and show neither spot nor soil. They are not affected by perspiration, and always look as if right out of the box. When they get soiled you can clean them in a minute by simply wiping off with a wet cloth. These are but a few of the advantages of wearing the "Celluloid" collars and cuffs. There are many others that you will readily discover the first time you wear one.

They are the only waterproof interlined collars and cuffs made. Be sure to get the genuine with this trade mark.

HONORS TO BENITA JUA Z.

Mexicans Cover His Tomb With Flowers. Organization to Enforce His Ideas.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 19.—The great Liberal party demonstration in commemoration of the anniversary of the death of Juarez was participated in by President Diaz, members of his cabinet, statesmen belonging to the Liberal party, prominent journalists, Freemasons, students in the leading colleges here and prominent citizens. The streets near the cemetery were lined with troops. Bands played dirges and there was an immense concourse of people to do honor to the great hero of Liberalism. The magnificent marble tomb of Juarez was literally covered with flowers.

A committee of the Liberal party specially devoted to seeing that the laws against the Catholic clergy are more vigorously enforced, was formed for the avowed purpose of carrying out the ideas which Juarez embodied in the celebrated reform laws regulating ecclesiastical observances, the conduct of the clergy in public, etc.

Important Case to National Banks.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The case of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' National bank of Pittsburgh vs. the state of Pennsylvania has been appealed to the United States supreme court from the Pennsylvania supreme court. The question involved is the constitutionality of the state bank tax act, and the case is considered a test one. The papers filed represent that there are 326 national banks in the state of Pennsylvania, the market value of whose stock is $128,000,000, which will be affected by the decision in the present case when rendered.

Serious Strike in Colon.

COLON, Colombia, July 19.—Troops are guarding the railroad property now and acting as escort to 100 laborers, who are to take the places of the strikers. The situation is serious and apprehensions are felt of an outbreak.
